Please join our support organization, The Friends of ESILL.

As a non-profit organization, ESILL seeks to extend its community support through our membership. As you can read on our website, ESILL.org, ESILL contributes to a number of local educational institutions. In addition, our membership program helps keep our tuition low and affords members fellowship with our directors, instructors and students. For $35 annual dues, you will receive flyers listing our current offerings, invitations to lectures and receptions, and a $5 discount on every course taken by you and your immediate family members for two terms. To join, you may use the form below (also available as a download at ESILL.org) or call Dot Bremer at 604-9342. We thank you for supporting this unique Fairhope institution.
